PAT HENRY KILLED NEAR HEARNE TEXAS

Information came early Wednesday morning that J. P. (Pat) Henry, formerly of the First National Bank in Hamlin was found dead six miles out from Hearne, Texas, on a highway. Evidently having been killed in a wreck sometime Tuesday night.

Pat Henry had a host of friends in the Hamlin country, including farmers and ranchmen. He had two brothers, one, O. L. Henry also well known here.

Pat was married and lived in Austin. A phone call to that city by one of their friends here, said that they were leaving that night for Corpus Christi, the home of his wife, where burial would be sometime Thursday.

It seems that identification was hard. A Masonic card to J. P. Henry, by the Hamlin lodge, was found and probably from that they located his identity.

W P A BRANCH OFFICE COMING

Hamlin has been picked as a branch location office of the Lubbock District.

That district is being divided into four area offices—one at Hamlin, (six counties) and others at Spur, Littlefield and Lubbock.

The second floor of the Scales building has been secured by the City as office space.

This will add at least two families (if men are married) and perhaps three or four part time workers—one area engineer and his assistants.

REVIVAL SERVICE TO BE HELD AT PLASTERCO

Beginning Sunday morning, Aug. 19, Rev. Chas. R. Smith will do the preaching in a two weeks revival at Plasterco. This revival is sponsored jointly by the Methodist and Baptist churches. Everyone cordially invited to attend.

Rev. Smith is well known over this section of the state, having been pastor at Highland Home, Rotan, Roby and other Baptist churches of this section. Rev. Smith is a very able preacher and you will miss a great blessing if you fail to hear him.

TO BROADCAST

At 12:45 Monday, September, 20, two Fisher County 4-H Club girls will broadcast over Station KRBC, Abilene. They are Geneva George of the McCauley Senior Girls' 4-H Club who won first place in the Fisher County Clothing Contest, and Leota Bailey of the Swedonia Girls' 4-H Club, who won second. They will tell of the improvements which they made in their clothes closets.

Dr. and Mrs. Joe McCrary were guests of the Tom Green Co. Dental Society at San Angelo, Monday evening of this week. The treat for the doctor and his wife was enjoyable and profitable. They report the main feature of their entertainment at the meeting was a talk and demonstration of a prominent laboratory technician from San Angelo—the subject being Porcelain Work.

REVIVAL SERVICES TO BE HELD AT M. E. CHURCH

Rev. Robt. L. Butler is the pastor of the Methodist church for the twin towns, Farwell, Texas and Texico, New Mexico. He is the minister who is to do the preaching in the revival here at Hamlin and he is to arrive next Sunday and continue through next week, closing Sunday night, Sept. 26.

REV. ROBERT L. BUTLER, of Farwell, Texas.

The Methodist Church in particular and the town of Hamlin in general are unusually fortunate in securing the services of Brother Butler for this revival campaign. He is one of the leading and outstanding young men of this North West Texas Conference. Being born poor and obscure has come up through the school of "hard knocks" and adversity, arriving where he now occupies in the hearts of the people who know him a place of honor and distinction in our church and in the work of the kingdom.

REV. ROBERT L. BUTLER, as he dressed in foreign countries.

Brother Butler finished in the School of Theology in Southern Methodist University; taught school for several years and has been preaching for 20 years. Has held

F F A CHAPTER FOR HAMLIN COUNTRY

One of the many chapters of the Future Farmers of America has been organized in the Hamlin High School. The new course, Vocational Agriculture, which is being offered to Hamlin High students, spurred the interest of the boys and their teacher, Mr. Templeton. Fifty-six have enrolled in the Vocational Agriculture Class.

Organization is complete. One meeting has been held and the officers elected are as follows: George Dean—president; Bill Norris—vice-president; Durwood Locke—secretary; and Lee Greenway as reporter.

Many calves, sheep and pigs are to be fed for show by the boys. These animals are expected to take many first prizes. The purpose of the club is to train boys to be better stock raisers and farmers and to show them the path of leadership among men.

This club is expecting the business men to help support their activities. These men should take an interest in such a splendid organization. It is a worthwhile program.—Reporter.

TO SHOW RARE CALF: This Friday night the F. F. A. boys will exhibit a rare specimen of Jersey heifer. It is from Winters, owner J. A. Green. The animal has a perfectly formed white mitten on its neck and it's a puzzle to all stockmen.

Martin McCain of Bryan, Texas was operated on last Thursday for appendicitis. Reports as late as the past Tuesday says that he is recovering rapidly and will be at his home again soon.

Bryant-Link Co., of this city, is sending two of their "hardware men" to a special training school in Dallas this week. Arice Jones, manager of the Hardware side of the store and Sol Branscum, the foreman in the implement house, are both at Dallas taking tops on the John Deere line.

only five pastorates—three of these have an average of nearly five years and is now in his seventh year as pastor at Texico-Farwell. In his trips abroad he has visited four of the great continents, including thirteen different countries. The principal ones were English territory, France, Spain, Italy, Greece, Palestine, Egypt, Trans-Jordan. The continents include Europe, Asia and Africa.

This Methodist minister is in great demand as a lecturer, but also as a revivalist and can not by any means fill all the calls that constantly come to him. Has a general lecture to men and women on the causes of the fall of Rome, and the buried cities of Pompeii, Herculaneum and Puteoli. He visited in Rome the place where Paul was put in prison and killed.

We are bringing him here not as a lecturer necessarily, but as a preacher and a revivalist to preach to us and lead us in this revival campaign, and not only for the Methodist, but for every denomination in Hamlin. In all the preaching and work of this revival, we have three objects especially in view; namely:—Every christian in Hamlin and surrounding country revived spiritually. Every backslider reclaimed. Every boy and girl, every man and woman, who is not a christian, to accept Christ—become a christian and join some church. Every christian is invited and urged to assist to do three things during this revival:—To attend every service as regularly as possible. Pray fervently each day. To work as diligently as you feel that the Heavenly Father will want you to work.

A full house is expected from the first service. Brethren, we are calling upon you for once to do your bit and your BEST. God will greatly bless us if we do all we can.

Yours for a great revival, W. H. HANK, Pastor.

B. L. Nance, Visiting Evangelist. Rev. B. L. Nance, our Conference Visitation Evangelist, is with us for this next week. He is almost too well known here for an introduction. He has charge of the personal work and the personal workers. If you have not met him or know him, you will.

Cotton Picking Gets Under Way In Big Style

TEXAS COTTON FESTIVAL TO BE PRE-SENTED AT FREE FAIR

ADVERTISING

This week Hamlin business men are short on advertising and checking over the list we find the following who have messages for the citizens of this community:

One of the most consistent advertisers is the Hamlin Hatchery. Ford Used Car Advertisement.

Strauss Dry Goods. Firestone Tire and Rubber Co. Bryant-Link Co.

over the name of Hudson Service Station.

Hamlin Cotton Oil Mill. S. W. Bell Telephone Co. Witt Jewelry Co.

Ferguson Theatre. Bowman's Shoe Shop, which is trying to get adjusted in the building formerly used by the Hamlin Auto Supply, since the fire.

Not only Hamlin, but Abilene, is represented by the West Texas Fair, the Lydeck Roofing Co. and Couch Used Cars.

What have you to sell? Can be answered in the most economical way through the Herald.

Ernest Bessire, who holds a government job in Amarillo, is spending the week with his family in the Dove community.

Mrs. Ernest Watson is at home after spending the summer with her mother, Mrs. S. C. Smith at Temple. She also visited her daughter, Mrs. Laverne Perkins in Austin. She was accompanied by her daughter, Miss Maxine, who spent the time in Austin.

Guy Cannon, reporter for the Stamford American, and Miss Olive McDougal, columnist for the Stamford Leader, were callers at the Herald Office Saturday. They were accompanied by Mr. Lucas, of Houston.

W. N. Temple, accompanied by his son, Earl Temple, returned from Lamesa where he has been spending the past month. Miss Eleanor Temple accompanied her brother to Lamesa where she will be a guest in his home.

Arice Jones, of the Bryant-Link Company is spending the week in Dallas attending a John Deer Factory school for salesmen.

This week is Jones County's banner cotton week. Every gin is running full ahead. Some plants are going as high as 100 bales per day and some far more than that.

Cotton is growing and still putting on and a late frost will mean thousands of dollars to the farmers of this county. Only the extreme western part of the county has failed to get recent rains. Hamlin is one of the few dry spots in all the state that has not been drenched. Even in the far Trans-Pecos country they had a downpour of proportion that would do credit to even a coast country. But Hamlin has been skipped. California river has lost its "head" and hereafter to make look like a river geographies will say it heads up west of Neinda and runs east of Hamlin across Highway No. 4.

It is interesting to report cotton ginnings and below is what we located by 'phone, this Thursday afternoon:

There are four gins in Hamlin and we would be glad to give the exact figures for each of them, but on objection to this and preferred the total only for the city be indicated. Thus we are hampered by the kind of request.

Up to noon this Thursday, the Hamlin gins had received 1116 bales. Neinda is only about 8 miles south of town, and should by rights be included in the report and they seemed glad to announce, unconditionally; that up to the phone call Thursday they had received 508 bales, boosting the grand total to 1624.

These FIVE gins should get near 20,000 bales this season.

RESIDENCE BURNS EARLY MON. NIGHT

Fire again invaded Hamlin property this week. Early Monday night, occupants of the Morgans Hotel observed a blaze rising out of the Colwell residence just across the street north of the hotel. This residence was used by Mr. and Mrs. Creed Smith. They had gone out for a twilight walk and were up north Hamlin when the fire alarm sounded hardly noticed it till the lighted sky indicated that it must be near their home.

Neighbors rushed in to save as much as possible and as the fire was up and out top, the rooms were easily entered and most of the household goods were saved. Yet such cases, much was lost and lot damaged.

Reports are that Colwell carried insurance, but the household goods were covered.

Ready response of the fire department soon stopped the fire and much of the house can be repaired.

Tip Moore of Weatherford, spent the week-end here visiting friends.

"SAFE" DRIVERS CAUSE ACCIDENTS

Ninety per cent of traffic accidents are caused by experienced, supposedly safe drivers, not by the inexperienced motorist said Ralph Lee, safety expert, at the recent Western Safety Conference. He cited a California survey which showed that 75 per cent of traffic fatalities in that state were chargeable to drivers with an average of eight years' experience, who had never had a previous accident.

Finally, he said, before accidents can be prevented, the popular belief that the great bulk of them are caused by a relatively few congenitally reckless or incompetent persons, must be corrected. It is no longer true.

Over-estimating safety factors has turned many a driver who used to be careful, into a dangerous menace on the highways. Where the cars of a few years ago gave you a thrill at 40, the cars of today do 60 and 70 with ease. That makes for comfortable motoring when all goes well—but lack of vibration, and motor smoothness doesn't help when you are careen head-on into another car at a mile-a-minute clip. And the fact that today's highways are safe, from an engineering standpoint, when compared to the roads of yesterday, doesn't help when you experience a slow-out while you are hitting it up—or speed around a curve to find the road blocked and insufficient room to stop.

It is the average, experienced, "safe" driver who is causing today's accidents. This is the driver who must be reached by law enforcement agencies, and who must be appealed to by safety campaigns that are to get results.

Half the unhappiness in the world is due to the failure of plans which were never reasonable and often impossible.

Health-Wrecking Functional PAINS

Severe functional pains of menstruation, cramping spells and jangled nerves soon rob a woman of her natural, youthful freshness. PAIN lines in a woman's face too often grow into AGE lines!

Thousands of women have found it helpful to take Cardul. They say it seemed to ease their pains and they noticed an increase in their appetites and finally a strengthened resistance to the discomfort of monthly periods.

Try Cardul. Of course if it doesn't help you, see your doctor.

A CHECK THAT GAVE MOST PLEASURE WAS GIVEN THIS WEEK

"Three times we had gone to the office of Ideal Security Insurance Company, at Anson, with sorrowful hearts caused by violent and unexpected deaths in our family. The first was when our son, Gean V. Cummins, was killed by a boiler explosion near Christmas of 1935; then his daughter, Marcella, was killed in the New London school disaster.

"Last week we received and carried messages of what we then thought was the untimely going of Earl Dean Cummins, when the mangled body of a boy was identified as that of his, by his mother when she was called to review the remains. Her son was away from home and other sad experiences caused her to feel that this was he. She accepted what she felt was more grief, and put the remains tenderly beside the bodies of her other two ill-fated loved ones.

"The knowledge that Earl Dean is yet alive and coming home to his mother and to us, who have twice mourned his death, makes the refund to Ideal Security Life Insurance Company, who so promptly paid all claims, the most pleasant check, we ever gave. That other parents and grand-parents be spared the sorrow what has been ours, is our earnest prayer." (Signed)

MR. and MRS. M. S. CUMMINS.

Who takes a little more care than he's expected to do.

Who puts the small detail on an equal footing with the more important things.

He's the man who is going to make a success of his job for—

FEED COSTS LESS

With more abundant supplies, prices of many farm crops are lower this fall than a year ago or than last spring, analysis of Government and market reports reveals. On the other hand, prices of livestock and their products are generally higher, making livestock feeding especially profitable at this time.

On August 15 this year, says the Department of Agriculture, the index of all farm products prices was 2 points lower than a month ago and 1 point under a year ago. Prices of two leading Southern crops—cotton and cottonseed—showed less decline than several other farm products, dropping only 16 points as against 20 points decline for all grains and 22 points for fruit. The prices of meat animal products, however, rose from July to August.

PRICE IS IN PRODUCTS

For crop whose value has been cut Cottonseed is an example of a many lower prices on its products. Due to decreases of 25 to 45 per cent in prices of cottonseed meal, hulls, oil and linters—the products which determine the value of the seed, itself—the value of cottonseed is less than a year ago. As a result of this reduction in products' prices, cottonseed has dropped in value along with corn, wheat, oats, fruit and many other farm crops.

In addition to reduced prices of products, the low quality of some seed has been a factor in limiting its value in many localities. Chemical analyses show cottonseed to be 40 to 60 pounds, or more, lower in oil in certain areas than the average for the Cotton Belt as a whole. This, alone, may cut the value of seed by several dollars per ton.

Mrs. E. M. Wilson and daughter, Miss Elmo Joy, who have been visiting her sister, Mrs. Ross Walker and other relatives, returned Saturday to their home in Denton where Miss Wilson will resume her studies in North Texas State Teachers College.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Morris, of Lubbock were here this week to visit Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Steel.

Points and Personalities

by doris pope

We are expecting to see one of the funniest and most amusing games ever played in Hamlin tonight when the business men of the town mount donkeys to play that fast and thrilling game of baseball. Donkey Baseball is declared to be the greatest of comic sports yet invented.

The proceeds of the game will go to the athletic fund of the high school—so come out, have a world of fun and back the Pipers one hundred per cent strong.

It is rumored that stars in the Donkey baseball clash will be Rev. W. H. Hanks, "Mae West," and G. R. Bennett.

Miss Olive McDougle and Guy Cannon, two fellow-columnists on the Stamford Leader and Stamford American, who were in Hamlin Saturday "Rambling" and "Seeing Things" stopped by to inspect the new Herald home.

Did you know that Hamlin really has a band? We listened in on a practice session this week and it sounded swell. Watch these kids 'cause they have an organization that is a credit to any town.

What young man with a very historical nape has been causing heart-flutters and is now the "object of affection" with certain Hamlin belles?

What prominent manager of a ready-to-wear department is now rated as Hamlin's No. 1—Lady-Around-Town?

We hear that some people in our fine city have been confused as to whether we were referring to them or to somebody else. Do you suppose it could be their conscience?

Then there's the city's bachelor, of long standing, who recently turned "Romeo" and is now paying suit to certain "bachelor girls" and divorcees.

Personality of the week: This week we "star" one of Hamlin's real old timers, an ex-mayor and a sincere booster for our community. He is noted for his jovial disposition and his ability to "stick" through drought, crop failure and depression. Recently he celebrated an anniversary which set him apart as our "oldest pill roller."

A prominent relief worker, who is being wooed by a well known judge of a neighboring town, recently received a big, juicy watermelon from her suitor. That must be a case of "say it with watermelons."

Who is the young man employed by a lumber company who finds the country around Rule very interesting and attractive? And why?

Windows of the week: We want to compliment the merchants and business establishments of our city on their very attractively arranged and decorated window displays. These add not only to the general appearance of the town, but they add a great deal to the store and the business itself. Just this week we heard a customer remark that "as the window is, so is the store."

It is our aim to "spot light" one outstanding window each week. Of course we can't put everybody in the same issue, but we do want to include every business at some time. And, if you have a special display, just give us a wink or the high sign and we'll be around.

What prominent couple of Hamlin were seen on the Stamford highway at 1:45 a. m. Monday? They told they had a flat tire and ran out of gas. (There's safety in numbers—if ONE excuse won't work, try TWO.)

Is it just an old Southern custom when a young gentleman from Alabama courts a fair maid from Mississippi?

Of the three high school teachers who weren't introduced at the formal opening of school because they were "old," two have admitted that they "even had their speeches made up." What a disappointment!

A point of disagreement is whether a certain well-known stenographer and a prominent saleslady just can't resist the sex appeal of

It looks as though Fall is here the way people are grabbing their cotton sacks and rushing things up, it means better times and we should be thankful we have something to gather, as crops aren't anything extra this year.

WANT DUCHESSES COTTON FESTA

Cities and towns of West Texas have been asked to send Duchesses to participate in the coronation of King Cotton and the Texas Cotton Queen at the Texas Cotton Festival, scheduled Abilene October 5 and 6 during the West Texas Free Fair, according to the West Texas Fair publicity department.

To compose the Texas Cotton Festival court along with the two hostesses princesses, Eloise Ely, daughter of Judge and Mrs. W. R. Ely, and Marjorie Munger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Munger, the Duchesses will take part and become guests of honor in a round of social events, climaxed by the Coronation of the Texas Cotton Queen and King Cotton. Names of King and Queen will be disclosed on the day of the Coronation.

In honor of visiting Duchesses, the Texas Cotton Festival Ball is to be held in one of the downtown ballrooms on the night preceding the Coronation. The Coronation Grand Ball will be the finale to Texas Cotton Festival on Coronation Night.

The Texas Cotton Festival, as a part of the West Texas Free Fair, is to be one of the most elaborate affairs of its kind ever to be held in West Texas, and the only one of its kind attributed to cotton.

Staged on setting 253 feet in length with a gorgeous palatial background, the Coronation will be held along with "Arabian Nights," a colossal pageant with a cast of 400 people.

In charge of the Coronation are Howard McMahon and Mrs. Earnest Grissom.

Little Miss Betty Lou Ferguson, who has been spending the summer here with her grandmother, Mrs. B. S. Ferguson, returned to her home in Dallas, Sunday.

Wynell Watson, son of Mr. and Ernest Watson returned last week to Troy, to resume his studies in the Troy High School, where he will be a senior this year.

IN MEMORY OF MRS. A. C. HALL

I have had the joy and pleasure of being associated with Mrs. Hall for the past several years, and through her long illness I have found her to be one of the most sacrificing mothers I've ever known. Her high ideals of life were an inspiration to all who knew her. Her greatest desire was that her family be the best of moral and religious characters.

We loved her, yes, we loved her

But Jesus loved her more

And he has sweetly called her

To yonder shining shore.

The golden gates were open

A gentle voice said, "Come"

And with her farewells spoken

She calmly entered home.

Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Evans, President of the San Marcos State Teachers College, came up Monday to be present at the home of Mrs. Evans, sister, Mrs. D. M. Harris, whose husband was 75 years old Tuesday just for the day.
